Episode 31

Welcome back to the podcast loves. I'm going to bring something a little different. First of all, Uranus is now in Gemini. This ends a major, major journey, eight year journey through the sign of Taurus and into the sign of Gemini. This is a paradigm shifting, world changing, life changing transit. This is one of three major transits happening in 2026 that indicate that the next few years are going to be.

We're literally revolutionary, literally revolutionary. So many new beginnings, initiating new cycles and really claiming our lives and also claiming new earth, retaking the earth. And this is very different than the first years of the 2020s where there was a lot of challenge, a lot of disruption, a lot of obstacles. Now we're gonna see an acceleration in the dynamic energy that changes this world and changes our lives.

So I did a deep dive live on Uranus and Gemini. So one thing, sorry, thought came through as I was speaking. The three game-changing transits are Saturn entering Aries, Neptune entering Aries, and Uranus entering Gemini. All three of these transits actually flirted with the new cycle in 2025. So what I mean by this is Saturn briefly entered Aries, Neptune briefly entered Aries, and Uranus briefly entered Gemini. And then they all retrograded back.

What happens when these like bigger, longer generational planets enter into the new sign and then retrograde back? It's kind of this thing where it's like starting to attempt, not attempt, it's starting to initiate the new cycle that's about to birth, but then it needs to go back to the old, the sign that it was in previously in order to have what I refer to as its final exams and graduation.

So it leaves that sign, but it is returning in retrograde because these planets, more generational and transpersonal planets, their retrogrades are long, and they move really slowly. So this is very common that a planet, one of these transpersonal planets will enter a new sign, and then by the time its retrograde comes back around, it's still so early on in that new sign that it will inevitably go back into the previous one.

THE

And that's like the final exam. So it's like stepping out into the new cycle, but then needing to go back to complete the final exams and truly integrate those lessons. Now, all three of these planets have entered into the new sign for the full on cycle, the full on Saturn and Aries cycle, the full on Neptune and Aries cycle, the full on Uranus and Gemini cycle. And Neptune and Uranus will not be returning back to those signs that they just left in our lifetimes and for some of us not even Saturn will return to Aries in our lifetime.

So these are very rare, special, life-changing, world-changing new planets and another beautiful thing about them too is that they're in positive aspect with each other and they're also in positive aspect with Pluto in Aquarius. They're all compatible so all these world-changing and can be very challenging planets too, very confronting planets.

They're all in signs that are compatible with one another. There's just so much indication that the change that we've all been craving and wanting in the world, as well as in our lives and businesses is coming. It is coming. The time of the great change is here. So what I'm bringing that's a little different in this episode is my team, shout out Alyshia of Team Oath Oracle said to me, you did this really amazing live last year when it was Uranus in Gemini, when Uranus first entered Gemini in 2025, before it retrograded back for the final exams.

And now, as I'm recording this in April, 2026, it has just re-entered for its full cycle, which will go until 2033. Okay? So we're now in Uranus and Gemini for the long haul. So Alyshia said to me, this live was fire. We should put it on the podcast. And I was like, yeah, okay, let's do it. Cause I know how many of you also really resonated with that. I got so much positive feedback. You guys DMing me and the comments and everything on that.

So now the next part of this podcast is the audio recording of that live. Even if you were there with me live, I recommend listening again because we are now truly in this new cycle with Uranus and Gemini and it's a powerful time to reconnect and sometimes things don't land. When we first listen to them some pieces and then we have a different perspective and a different understanding later on when we revisit. So the live is here and if you hear me saying like, you know, talking to people in the chat, that's what's going on.

This was originally an Instagram live and before we get to that part too, I'll just let you know that there is a deep dive, full on masterclass, over two hour masterclass on Uranus in Gemini, as well as another masterclass on Saturn in Aries and another one on Neptune in Aries. So this is the three paradigm shifting planetary shifts that happened, started in 2025 and are full on in 2026 and beyond. So these masterclasses go very, very, very deep. I mean, it's probably seven or eight hours total of just dropping codes and deeper knowledge on how to work with this, what this means for our world, what this means in business, world and business predictions, as well as how to work with this in precision with your birth chart.

So Uranus is activating a specific area of your life on your chart, and so are Saturn and Neptune. So for the deeper dives on one or all three of them in the bundle, you can check the show notes for the link, and we put it at a really amazing price. So because I just knew, I wanted everyone to be able to drop into these codes in this time of true New Earth leadership.

You can check the show notes for those links if you want to check them out. And I will now insert the IG live where I went deeper on Uranus and Gemini.

Hello and welcome to today's IG Live. I'm gonna be talking about the life-changing, world-changing cycle of Uranus entering into Gemini and slowly completing its journey through Taurus. Uranus is the planet of revolution. It's the planet of innovation. It's the planet of social justice. It is the planet of innovation and invention of new solutions. Uranus is a very important planet for us right now because it is the modern ruler of Aquarius.

So as we enter into the age of Aquarius, we will learn a lot of lessons from Uranus's transits and activations that happen. Because wherever Uranus is transiting, it is bringing liberation and innovation and progress, but it's also bringing destabilization, disruption, shocks and surprises. So it's a really powerhouse energy to work with. And out of the transits, you can work with for your own personal chart.

Uranus is a really interesting one because its cycles are very long. Okay, so it's not usually the first one people go with when they start working with transits. They look at the moon, they look at Venus, they look at Jupiter, because throughout our lives, we've only had a few, we've only had a handful of Uranus cycles in our entire lives because of how many years it spends in a sign, around seven years. So the previous, well, actually it's not the previous, it's the current cycle that we're in. We're currently in the very end of Uranus in Taurus.

So in this live, this is going to be a short live, I wanted to share some of my personal story of how working with, I keep saying like Uranus or Uranus, this is like an ongoing joke in my clients. It's like, damn, I need to make up my mind because I'm masterclass on this. I'm going to go with Uranus. So working with Uranus actually has a really, really vital role for me in me changing my entire life, starting my business and being on the path that I'm currently on.

Wherever Uranus is transiting on our chart is an area of life that is called to be revolutionized. Okay, and the word revolution gets thrown around a lot. Revolution is not a walk in the park. Revolution is not sunshine and rainbows though that could be the end result of revolution. Revolution requires us to let go of a lot; revolution is a form of death and rebirth.

So that's why it's also the planet of disruption because it's disrupting something. And what is it disrupting? It's disrupting the status quo. It's disrupting what's no longer aligned. It's disrupting what's not meant for us in the highest timelines. It's disrupting what is not healthy for society. And we know as we're entering the Aquarian Age, we're entering an age of revolution. We're entering an age of the people's uprising. We're entering an age of drastic global change. And another keyword for Uranus is radical.

We are being called into radical authenticity, radical change, radical honesty with ourselves and others. And it's not just being honest about what is true. It's about being honest about what we want, what we see, objectively looking at what's happening in the world around us and being honest about how that makes us feel. So this is world changing, but it's also life changing as well. People sometimes talk about the generational planets like Pluto, Neptune, Uranus, as things that are like, yeah, they don't really affect us because they're like generational. No, they do affect you because one area of your life, AKA, well, actually it's more than one for most people, but during this period of time, houses, sometimes it might be one house or maybe one or two houses, are being activated on your birth chart that is saying this area of life is going to undergo drastic revolutionary change.

It's gonna be so different than what it was before because it's literally the planet of change that you will look back on this area of life and say it was revolutionized. That's how drastic that the change is going to be in this area of life at the same time because Uranus is connected with new earth and the Aquarian Age and the collective in general. It's also bringing you forward into your role in the new earth and in the revolution.

I want to share a little bit about my personal story. So for those who don't know, by the way, I'm teaching a one and a half to two hour masterclass on Uranus in Gemini that's gonna be a deep dive where I'm gonna teach you exactly how this activates your birth chart, my world predictions, my business predictions, strategies that align with this, new earth leadership pieces that align with this, and exactly how to work with it for you. Because the way it impacts you is not the same as the way it impacts me. So this is something that I can only go so deep in in the masterclass.

I wanna share my personal story of how I got here, okay, from where I was before Uranus entered into Taurus in the spring of 2019. Okay, and it's still in Taurus now. It will enter into Gemini on July 7th. So in two days, it'll enter into Gemini. It will actually retrograde back into Taurus toward the end of the year into next spring, and then it will not be in Taurus again for our lifetime. So this was a really important thing, and it's important to talk about Uranus in Taurus because we need to understand the previous cycle and like gain the lessons and mine the gems and the gold nuggets from that transit in order to actually integrate those lessons and actually evolve through that and really enter into the next phase with the highest possible outcomes. Okay.

So the Uranus in Taurus transit, Uranus is the planet of revolution. Uranus is the planet of innovation, change and invention. And technology is also ruled by Uranus. Taurus is the sign of financial security, things like banking, stability and structures. And Uranus is actually in its fall in Taurus. So that means the fall is a type of dignity that a planet can have in a certain sign that kind of talks about the dynamic between those energies. Because Uranus is the planet of change, and Taurus is a sign that doesn't like change, Taurus is a sign that strives for stability.

It was a tense one. So it's a celebration that now Uranus is entering into Gemini, which is then it's leaving its placement of its fall. And that's a really positive thing because our experience of a planet when it's in its fall is we experience more of the challenge and we experience more resistance to the revolution that Uranus was trying to bring forth. And what was that revolution when Uranus was in Taurus? Taurus is a sign of financial stability.

Taurus is a sign of wealth and abundance and our physical security in the material realm. So during this period of time, literally beginning in 2019, and actually, sorry, it actually began in 2018 and then it had a retrograde back and then it re-entered in 2019 for its longest period of time. So we know that there was the cryptocurrency explosion deepened during this period of time and that was one of the ways that Uranus in Taurus is changing the world because during that seven year period of time cryptocurrency became much more popular.

Of course it existed before that period of time but it became much more mainstream and known and accepted and normalized in the mainstream. That's why I always talked over last five years, I've always talked about Uranus and Taurus as the revolution of wealth.

THE

because Uranus rules innovation and technology and revolution and social justice. And it's very decentralized energy, like non-hierarchical energy. And Taurus has to do with banking, wealth and abundance. So cryptocurrency is totally a manifestation in the way that it became more normalized and more accepted throughout the collective during this period of time. That's one of the big gifts and one of the big revolutions that this was bringing us. Another one that's very relevant to us here on my platform is the online business space.

So Uranus rules technology and also being a black sheep, Uranus is very unconventional. So those of us who are black sheep, who walked a different path than what people have told us that we need to be successful or whatever, we actually were able to find success during this time in very unusual ways and unconventional ways, reaching people around the world through the power of the internet that interconnects us all in a non-hierarchical way.

So that was another big revolution that happened is different types of people being able to create success and access abundance and resources and information that we couldn't before. I basically taught myself business for free for the first months of my business because I didn't have money to invest in coaching and then when I did then I did invest in coaching. But at the beginning I just like learned whatever I could for free because it's all at our fingertips. That's very Uranus energy.

That's very Uranian energy because it's the energy of technology information and social justice as in anyone can access it because we're all interconnected and Uranus is connected with the collective. So this was part of a wealth redistribution process that's really important for the Aquarian Age and New Earth. Now, to my personal story and how I use the transit of Uranus in in Taurus and how it activated my birth chart to literally change my life is this.

The house that it was in my birth chart that was being activated by Uranus in Taurus. For the first chunk of time, it was in my ninth house, which is the house of teaching and it's also the house of learning. During this period of time, I started to take online courses for the first time. I started to, like I signed up for my very first course for like $300 that I ever signed up for. I started to understand that learning about mindset work and the subconscious mind. I started to understand that I had a money story that was connected to my ancestors experience with money. And I started to journal and do this type of work and like learn about these things online for the first time in my life.

Then I, during those years as well. So I started my business in 2020 and Uranus entered Taurus two years before in 2018. Those two years before I started my business was the period of time where I started to do paid astrology readings. And I also went from being an employee, my last job as an employee was I was a bartender. I was one of the full-time bartenders at La Mezcaleria, the Mexican restaurant on commercial drive in Vancouver. Still an amazing place, I loved work. It was a great last job to have, to work for someone else, all Mexican staff, and it was just like hablando Espanol and drinking tequila in mezcal. It was really fun. Shout out, Mezcaleria.

Once I left that job, which was right around the time that Uranus entered into Taurus. Remember that Uranus brings disruption. Okay? So I left my employment and I started to do five different side hustles. So my finances were all up and down. As a full-time bartender, it's different than being like a server. Like you make a more consistent amount of money as a bartender. So I worked, had full-time hours, 40 hours a week. So I went from very consistent money

To then, Uranus, the planet of disruption and revolution enters into the sign of money. And then I left my employment and my money started going up and down because I was doing all these different side hustles. I, the, this was my in between time before starting my business. I let go of being an employee and I had this two year period of time where I was doing side hustle. So I was doing paid performances cause I was a performance artist every now and again, getting some fairly decently paid gigs and performing at festivals and stuff.

I was a nude art model, so I would pose and people would draw me at like the Vancouver Film School and other, at the animation department and stuff like that. Like I was like doing that. I was the door girl at different events. I did all kinds of stuff and my clients know even more, even more of the crazy stuff that I got up to. And one of the side hustles that I had, well, it wasn't a side, I didn't consider it a side hustle, but one of the income streams that I had was doing paid astrology readings.

So during this period of time is when I went from just being obsessed with astrology and reading for my friends to doing paid readings for strangers because I started with one and then they told their friends and they told their friends and through word of mouth, I had a fairly consistent amount of paid readings. And so I left the more predictable payment of being an employee and working at a bar, working at a restaurant to having more unpredictable money, but more freedom.

And this was a really important phase for me and entering into my entrepreneurship era because I had two years of transitioning away from being an employee. And that changed my identity and I had total freedom over my schedule. I could just say yes or no to things. If I had an art model gig and they wanted me to pose, I could just say yes or no. So it was always like that. I didn't have to ask for time off like I did as an employee. And so then...

At the end in fall of 2019, so now Uranus entered Taurus in May 2018, then it briefly retrograded back and re-entered in 2019, and it was there at the end of 2019 in October, I remember. And I had had multiple weeks where I had like three or four or five paid astrology readings. And I was like, whoa, like something's up with this right now. Like this is happening. This is real. And I'm doing readings. People are crying. I used to do them in person and people would cry in front of me. And then like they would tell their friends and that night I would get a call. I have no website. I have no social media. Okay.

And my background for those who don't know is I experienced like very real poverty. I dropped out of school when I was 15. I've supported myself financially since I was 15. I used to go to the food bank with my mom. We used to have like power cut off, lights cut off. Like I grew up with a lot of financial wounds and instability and not feeling held. Okay, so money was like a very big point of healing for me. And so I had been doing the mindset work like I was saying, like starting to do courses and stuff in 2018. Then at the end of 2019, when I'd seen that, wow, there's so much momentum going with these readings, like this could actually be a real thing. And I had been studying astrology for like over 15, 16, 17 years at that point, just as my passion, okay?

So toward October, 2019. I was like, okay, this astrology reading thing is real. I don't know how, this is crazy. I don't know anyone who does this. I don't know anyone with an online business. I wasn't following any business people. My Instagram was just me and my friends. Like I didn't know anything about the online business world, but I could see like I was being called forward into something.

And then I looked ahead at my astrology and I saw that Uranus, the planet of disruption and change, which had already been for a couple of years or over a year in the sign of Taurus, the sign of money, and that was already revolutionizing my relationship with money. Because it's a slow revolution. It's not a light switch. It's a seven-year transit, right? So it's not just like day and night, right? So for those two years, I was changing my money mindset. I was changing the way that I made money. I was letting go of the predictable way that I knew to make money, which was to be an employee.

I opened up to different possibilities, I experimented, and then the astrology thing was just like working really well for word of mouth. I didn't even have a website or social media for astrology. So then I looked ahead at my transits and I saw that the planet of revolution, the planet of innovation, the planet of disruption, the planet of sudden change, and Uranus is also connected with astrology and it's connected with the sacred sciences as well. I saw that this planet was about to enter my 10th house.

And for those who study with me and know astrology, you know, it's the house of career. It's the house of legacy. It's the house of success. It's the house of being recognized. It's the house of our true life's work in this world, not the jobs that we do, but our true life's work in this world. So I saw this and I was like, yo, interesting. And I knew because it's a planet of disruption. I knew in 2020,

This is, I'm looking at this at the end of 2019. In 2020, I am not gonna have job security for some reason. I'm not gonna, because it's the planet of disruption, right? So I was like, the astrology is telling me in 2020, which we all know what happened, I was not gonna have job security. So I saw that and I was like, interesting. I don't know why that is, but the planet of disruption is disrupting my career.

And I thought, but Uranus, so when we work with a planet of disruption, I didn't get scared like, my God, I'm gonna lose my nude art modeling job or whatever. Like I wasn't scared because I understand the energy of Uranus and I knew how to work with it. And I knew that astrology or doing things that are unconventional to the status quo would be favored. And I knew that Uranus rules the internet and technology and that I didn't yet have a website for my astrology readings.

And that the thing that kept working better and better than the other things was my readings to the point that I sometimes had two clients in a day without any advertisement, without any website, without any social media, doing them in person. So I looked at that and I was like, then okay, 2020 is when I'm going to make a website for my astrology readings. And I knew that the best case scenario would be that if I ride this energy,

Instead of resist the change, which someone who's like, they have a corporate job, they've worked their whole school career to get this job, that's not really what they care about, but like they did it for security and then they have that transit, they're gonna have a rude awakening if they're overly attached to that. If they're clinging to something that needs to go, it's gonna be more of a rude awakening because disruption be like that. Revolution is not convenient.

But if you understand the energetics that are at play and you see that there are certain decisions that I couldn't, I saw there's certain decisions I could make. There's things I can engage with here that are aligned with this energy. Internet, technology, astrology was all up in there. It was all up in the chart. So that is what made me go from doing word of mouth readings.

That was one of the the straws in the camel's back. I really like that phrase. That was one of the final things that made me have the courage. And that's one of the beautiful things with astrology is it's given me the courage to go for things that without that encouragement mirrored back to me of like, this is the time. This is the time right now. Like jump out of the plane, jump. Like this is the time. If I didn't have that, I wouldn't be sitting here in front of you today. All right, like straight up.

So I was like, all right, like March, 2020, I based it on astrology. I could see I wasn't going to have job security. And obviously we all know what happened. The pandemic happened and all of my side hustles disappeared. And, I had already started my business. I had already worked on creating my business and I learned what I needed to learn for free on the internet. And Uranus rules the internet. Uranus is a very social justice related energy where it's like information is available to all of us equally basically on the internet because everywhere in the world now people have this access which is a really beautiful thing.

So I revolutionized my career from literally being a bartender, being the girl at the dance hall, there was a dance hall night in Vancouver called Ting and I was the door girl giving the stamps, I was the door girl at Sunday Fun Bay, like I was just like that was my job guys. I went from that to literally making multiple millions of dollars. I own this two bedroom condo in my favorite neighborhood, in my favorite city in Canada. I just spent a month in Greece, five star travel, business class, doing whatever the fuck I wanted, like having the time of absolutely my life and then had a 20K week in the final week of my trip, 20K cash US.

That transformation, I don't know how that quantum leap could have happened without the influence of Uranus. And not just doing it for me, it was my understanding of the opportunity that it was serving to me. And if I didn't understand that and I clung to what was normal to me at that time, then the revolutionary energy, the sacred disruptor of Uranus would come through and sweep away things that I was clinging to and that would be very painful and very uncomfortable and I wouldn't be ready for that.

But because I understood the essence of this archetype and the exact opportunity it was offering to me, I was like, wow, it like this astrology thing might really work. But never did I ever think that my goal when I started my business was 5K months. 5K months is a 60K year. 60K doing what you love is fucking amazing. But instead that became what I made in a month. There were times that I made 60K in two weeks and made 120K in a month.

So revolution is beyond what you can currently comprehend. And now that Uranus is exiting the sign of its fall, which means we were having more uncomfortable and challenging experiences with that change. And it's entering into a sign where it is much more comfortable, into a sign where things are going to move a mile a minute. Whatever you thought was stuck will change, but you need to be available for the change. You need to understand the highest opportunities available for you with that activation.

And the transit of Uranus in Gemini will also be over six years, six to seven years. So in this past seven years for me with Uranus in Taurus, first starting in my ninth house, but then mostly in my 10th house for almost all of it, I literally became Oath Oracle through this. I started my house of career, planet of revolution, sign of money. I literally went from making like 30,000 Canadian dollars a year.

Always struggling, living with roommates, sharing a fridge, sharing a bathroom, always worried about money, always getting groceries based off what was on sale, getting clothes based off what was on sale, always worried about it, always worried about my future and stuff like that. I went from that to multiple six figure net worth and donating thousands of dollars every single month, literally just automatically donating that every single month. Donating 10K to Palestine a few months ago, like it's, the transformation was revolutionary.

And with Uranus being in Gemini, we are going to be called more into our role, not only in revolutionizing our life and that area of life on your birth chart that is going to receive this revolution, is going to give you these opportunities to quantum leap in ways you cannot at other times. You cannot.

Like that quantum leap that happened when I went from to be a bartender on commercial drive in Vancouver to be Oath Oracle now to have three different people on my payroll every single month to offer full-time employment to my amazing VA to just, you know, I can go on and on that quantum leap.

I can give a lot of credit to your onus. But more than that, because the planet doesn't do anything for you, it's reflecting an opportunity in a doorway that's available for you. More than that, it was my understanding of the opportunity that it was providing to me, that it won't be providing again in our lifetimes.

So this is what Uranus is offering us and Uranus in Gemini is going to be, it's going to be very different and things are going to change very fast during this period of time. So if you want to learn exactly how it's activating your birth chart, if you want to deep dive into Uranus in Gemini, my world predictions, my business predictions, my exact strategies and how practical ways, how to work with this, how you can show up for it for the quantum leap that's awaiting you.

and not resist it and keep perpetuating the past, but let yourself break through into this future that's trying to happen and understanding how that future has a place in New Earth and the global revolution that's happening as well, the people's uprising, then I really suggest that you join the masterclass that I'm holding on Uranus and Gemini and that information will be relevant for over six years. So it's going to keep serving you.

It's you know, really quite the gift that keeps on giving. It's going to keep serving you for years to come. I really recommend that you join because the people that are here, the people that are attracted to my work, you're a sacred rebel. You are a visionary. are meant to lead your movement as part of the symphony that we're creating that creates new earth. It's all the, it's the separate individuals rising together to play our, in our individual note and tone together, creating a symphony and that is part of creating the new collective timeline. We're going beyond just creating our timeline. I want a new timeline of abundance. No, Uranus is revolution. Revolution is beyond just your personal manifestations.

So it's both, it's the interconnected web. We're gonna talk about all of this, so. I'm so lit up by this topic because it's the Aquarian Age and Uranus is the modern ruler of Aquarius. And when we understand this, we understand the rulership, we understand the opportunities. Like I could cry right now just thinking about that version of me in my room when I lived with five roommates. So the six of us total, lived with five roommates paying like 600 bucks rent, always struggling. Didn't know what I was doing. Didn't feel like I had any purpose.

To then seeing that reflected and that giving me the courage to take the leap into this timeline and knowing a revolution was happening in my career but I could have never ever ever thought I would be here now. Having served over 3,000 clients, having made over well over 2 million US dollars, like doing what I love, talking about things like this with people, meeting the coolest fucking people, having over 100 people in my membership, like I never ever ever even allowed myself to dream how big it could be.

But Uranus is an energy of possibility. And as you rise into your purpose, you become also a more powerful contribution to the collective revolution and the people's uprising that is meant to happen in the age of Aquarius. And that's really what the vision is. So this is a breakthrough beyond any place where we are settling for mediocrity. Any place where we're like, no, that's not possible, no, that's not possible. Uranus makes the impossible possible because it's the energy of invention.

So templates, the template of success that I'm walking now didn't exist before of someone doing exactly what I'm doing, how I'm doing it didn't exist before. So if I base what I think is possible, what I'm going to go for on past templates, then my only possibility is to keep reinventing the past or recreating the past. Uranus is about the new templates of being human, the new templates of governance that is going to be needed in the new earth, the new templates of success and money and wealth that is connected to heart and soul and ethics, right?

So I'm so passionate about this. I would love to have you in the masterclass. This is a really deep part of my soul purpose work and. I just felt really called to share this story. And even in reflection for myself on the journey, it was only six or seven years ago that Uranus entered Taurus and I was starting this process and I had no idea where it would lead. And as they say, like hindsight is 2020. So when we look back on it, 2020 is when it was, right? But I look back on it and I see the power and the possibility of revolution in this area of life. And I want to help you understand it. And I've been studying astrology for over 22 years.

I have a lot to say and if you're a business owner there will be specific pieces that are specific to business because I'm also a multiple seven figure earner from overall total revenue in my business over five years. But it's not all about business. So if you don't have a business you're still gonna get a lot from it and you might find the business pieces interesting because they sometimes can apply to your career as well.

Okay, there's a lot of comments. All your master classes are so helpful. Rise up baby, I would love the link. I feel this for all projector power, yeah, we're projector as well. Okay, so I need to wrap it because I really actually have to go. So grateful I'll be there. Yay, Kirsten! Okay, thank you guys so much for being here. Feel free to share this. I would love to receive your comments on this if this resonated with you. Thank you for being a part of this journey because without you guys, there is no Oath Oracle. There is no this story to even tell. So, you know, there's people
